ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE FOR THE

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2025

1. The Staff Council has established an Anti-Ragging Committee comprising both faculty and student representatives.
2. An orientation program on anti-ragging is organized for students to educate them about relevant laws and disciplinary measures.
3. All students are required to fill out anti-ragging undertaking forms online during admission and collected the reference IDs from them.
4. The names and contact numbers of Anti-Ragging Committee members are prominently displayed at various locations across the campus.
5. Warning posters and awareness materials about anti-ragging are placed at key spots such as the canteen and are also made available on the college website.
6. Faculty members are deployed as part of an anti-ragging squad in critical areas like bus stops, canteens, and other important zones within and around the campus.
7. Committee members actively monitor the campus through regular rounds to detect and deter any instances of ragging.
8. Separate time schedules are allocated for first-year students to minimize interaction that could lead to ragging.
9. Any reported cases of ragging will be dealt with strictly, and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken immediately.
